JUDGMENT

The petitioner had earlier come to this Court with Writ Petition No.18578 of 2006. After detailed hearing, by judgment dt.19.1.2007 the said writ petition was dismissed with observations. The action taken by the Superintendent of Police was reported to this Court. The petition was dismissed with observations that if the petitioner has any justifiable grievance in future, he can make complaint to the Superintendent of Police, who shall do the needful.

2. The petitioner has now come to this Court with this writ petition. At the time of hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioner makes only one request. He prays that the judgment dt. 19.1.2007 may not be permitted to fetter the rights of the petitioner under law to claim damages/initiate prosecution for offences committed by his adversaries.

3. A reading of Ext.P5 makes it clear that the said judgment cannot and does not fetter the rights, if any, which the petitioner has under law. No clarification appears to be necessary.

4. This writ petition is, in these circumstances, dismissed with the above observations.
